

Florida Department of Children and Families \(last refreshed 4/18/2024\)

Charlotte County – VERIFIED

Date of Death – 3/28/2023

7-year-old autistic child, along with her father, were pronounced deceased after the family's home caught fire and neither were able to make it out of the residence. The fire resulted due to the father using a torch while he was smoking methamphetamine.