Arrest Made in Death of Infant

Tacoma, Wash. – On February 21, at 8:16 p.m., Tacoma Fire Department personnel were dispatched for an infant not breathing at an apartment in the 6300 block of N. 26 Street. Life-saving measures were started, and the infant was transported to the hospital.

Hospital staff determined the four-month-old male's injuries were caused by non-accidental trauma.

Officers and detectives responded to the hospital.

The infant died from his injuries at the hospital.

A 23-year-old male was arrested and booked for Murder Second Degree.
