On this date the child was pronounced deceased at [redacted] Medical Center in [redacted] TN. The actual time of death is unknown.

On October 5, 2024 at 12:48 PM, Case Manager (CM) [redacted] contacted Team Leader (TL) [redacted] in regard to law enforcement reaching out to her regarding a deceased infant in [redacted] TN. Detective [redacted] reported that mother stated she left the two children in the room while she went to the bathroom. When she came out, the baby was deceased. 911 was called and emergency responders attempted life saving techniques. Mother and child went to the hospital and mother left the 1 year old with the maintenance man at the hotel. Mother stated that [redacted] watches the children. She did not disclose that [redacted] resides in the home or was in a caretaker role for the baby at the hospital.
Mother has since changed her statement. Mother is employed and works 11 PM to 7 AM at Dennys. She came home about noon today. She worked at Golden Corral today and reported she was not feeling well and so she called the babys fathers to get her. When he arrived, he did so by himself. He left the children at the motel. When mother arrived at the motel, she went straight to the bathroom and when she came out, she noticed the baby was not breathing.
The father was engaged and lied to DCS and to law enforcement about his identity. He initially stated he was [redacted]
He then reported his name is actually [redacted] DOB 1[redacted]. His legal name is [redacted] He is a registered sex offender out of Georgia. He is the biological father of the children. Initially, father denied being the father to the children and reported that he just works there, as the maintenance guy. He was hired two days ago. Father reported he has bipolar and depression. He is not on medication. He has current warrants out of Georgia. He is being charged with failing to register as a sex offender, filing a false police report and false ID.

Mother reported she grew up in foster care in [redacted] Georgia. She was adopted at 17 years old. Mother has been in Tennessee for one and a half months. The baby was born in [redacted] IN. She was in Georgia before that.
Mothers timeline left at 10:46 PM. She fed the baby before she left. The father drove her to Dennys with the children and she worked until 7 AM. She walked from Dennys to Golden Corral. She started work at Golden Corral at 7:30 AM. She reported she was not feeling good and so she called and asked the father to get her. She left Golden Corral at 11:50 AM. When she arrived home, the door was unlocked to the room. She reported she went straight in to the bathroom. She came out and noticed the baby was not breathing. The baby was swaddled and laying in the bed, on its back, in a boppy pillow. The baby had aspirated. 911 rang at 12 PM. [redacted] was in the pack n play when she got home. He was asleep.
Mother did initially lie to the police about who the father was. When she saw him arrested, she told the truth about his identity. Mother stated she had asked about the fathers probation and she was told that he was good. They just have to check in with PO and drug screen when asked. Mother is in a fragile state at this time. She and the father have been in a relationship off and on for 7 ½ years. Mother knew it was a sting operation. He told her all charges were dropped except a computer pornography charge. Mother has the documentation for it because she had to prove he was the father so he could be around the children.
A collateral was engaged. She heard the baby cry at 10 AM.
The mother has nobody that can be a placement option for the baby except her boss, who is not answering. Mother asked if her cousin from Georgia could come and stay, could she have custody of him.
